

The influence of spiritual energies on Earth's climate.

Session nr 5 of 11 July 2024 –English translation- Original French.

Place : Mezzaverde in Belgium.

Received by Oscar and Wivine.

Visitors :

- Christ Michael (Jesus)– Sovereign of our local universe Nebadon.
- Lanaforge – Lucifer’s replacement – Sovereign of the planetary system of Satania of inhabitable planets in which Urantia, our planet, is situated- Chief of de planetary princes from his planetary system Satania.

Note Wivine :

A week ago Oscar had an experience during a meditation that indicated that there could be a problem of dark influence with a member of his family who lives in another city. I felt that I had to act and asked him the name of the person and his close family as well as their address to check it out. The people had no problems but it was the area where they live where there was something strange. When I checked the place he had given me I felt that there were dark elements, but my head started to buzz like when I am in a 'very holy' place which meant to me that this place was important to the Celestials.

I then went into "silence" and asked what to do? Should we cleanse this place of demons or other dark entities? Was it an ancient place of war massacres or human sacrifices? Or an old 'Holy' place that has been desacralized?

Answer: Go there right away with Oscar, where we will join you. Yes, there is a dark spot in this place, but it does not matter, you will clean it at the same time. This place is especially important for us, the Celestials.

Two days later Oscar and I went via bilocation to this city to help the Celestials do what they wanted to do. Below is the story of this bilocation and comments of Lanaforge. It was something new for Oscar, so he was a little stressed. Since I did not know what would happen, I could not give him many instructions.

Oscar's story on the bilocation of Thursday, July 11, 2024 in Bucaramanga, Colombia. Duration 30min.

Oscar: I read the prayer as usual before the meditation and asked my guides to take me to the agreed place. I was a little nervous, especially because I didn't know if I was going to do it right. But it was like you said, Wivine, I didn't have to do anything. I remember arriving at the site, where my mind went silent. My chakra 6 started vibrating. My soul took control and I saw myself going up.

Then I saw Jesus next to me, first standing, then sitting in the air. He put his arm on my shoulder as he always does and said to me: "Welcome!"

Who can resist the smile and tenderness of the Master of our local Universe? And he continued to speak to me:

"- You have two minds. One allows you to go about your daily business, and the other works on spiritual matters. The two have been and continue to be linked. You have been relatively successful in balancing them despite not being aware of it, except for a slight suspicion. This allows you to function "automatically" while living your life, even if everything does not always go well."

This reminded me that I cannot always remain calm in the face of certain events that, cumulatively, make me angry ; while other days, it is like a gentle breeze that makes me laugh when something or someone treats me in an uncomfortable way.

"- That was until today. You will again have only 'one mind', since your full potential must be exploited."

Will I be able to reach the desired potential? If we have Advanced or Supreme Adjusters, can we fail in our attempt? I did not express my thoughts as I usually do, they simply came to my mind. But as always, He knew what was going through my mind.

"- Free will, which is the Father's greatest Directive, is allowed to do anything. Even retard the process of spiritual evolution. It is up to men and women to reach with effort, the potential of this gift."

Advanced and Supreme Thought Adjusters have had experiences with human souls with which they could not connect or fuse, precisely because of their free will. However, they were able to gain experience. You know the purpose of perfect inner guidance: to temper, strengthen, contribute to your spiritual growth and much more. "

Then he turned around and I saw someone very similar to Him. I turned around to look and received a wink. There were no questions, no comments, no reflections. The "double", who I thought must have been someone very close to our Father-Brother (Jesus), placed his hand on my chest and a light came out after which everything became silent.

My chakra 6 remained active the entire time of the bilocation, I even felt a sensation in the back of my head, as if I was receiving information.

Then I was told to go home. I had to wake up slowly, because in addition to being tired, I could not move. I had to wait about 5 minutes before I could get up.

(Note Wivine: this "double" must come, in my opinion, from Jesus Himself. It makes me think of the morontia imprint that we leave of ourselves when we meditate somewhere. But that one does not move. Obviously at our small level it might be different. Jesus has a soul or personality that must be as big as his local universe Nebadon, with divine powers going beyond our understanding. He must therefore be able to go away from a material or semi-material place and leave his imprint or 'double' to do what it did to Oscar.

This is how I can understand or see it at present with my human mind. Christ Michael does not have twin brothers. We too will be able to or already can find ourselves in two different places – even sometimes physically. Now we are not aware of it, but one day we will be able to do it consciously. Not for fun but to help the Midwayers in places of disaster or war or for a conference. So you can imagine that in the case of Christ Michael, God alone knows what He is capable of. It may seem magical, divine, mysterious to us, because of our ignorance of these phenomena. There will come a day when all this will seem normal to us, when we will understand things differently.

I grew up believing that babies came out of cabbages and I came out of a red cabbage! While my brother who had white hair, white eyebrows and blue eyes came out of a white cabbage according to my grandmother. It seemed logical in my child's mind and I believed it for a long time. It certainly did not prevent me from growing up. (that was more than 60 years ago -no internet, no books, no films, no woke culture in schools).

I suppose it is the same for our soul - she grows more due to other factors than what we take for spiritual truths. Truths that change, disappear or expand as we mature.)

Wivine.

Wivine summary of the bilocation of Thursday, July 11, 2024 in Bucaramanga, Colombia - duration 35min.

When I arrived in Bucaramanga, I saw Oscar. We stood in front of each other and then we rose above the place. Then I saw the three children of Paradise arriving in their current physical form - they are still cute little children. There were only 5 of us which made me wonder if the 6th one was going to come or someone else. Jesus arrived smiling to reassure me. He was there and with Melchizedeks. I even had the impression that Lanaforge (Lucifer's replacement) was there too.

I was told that Oscar and I had to first take care of removing the dark entities that were there. I understood that we were to stand in front of each other and that the inner Energy of our Thought Adjuster would come out automatically from our chakra 6 to meet in the middle and create something similar to our ancient 'Light Anchors'. We did this and suddenly a large dust cloud came out of the place for a while. This dust cloud rose from the inside of the earth like an exploding volcano and grew larger and larger to cover us so that I could no longer see Oscar. This lasted as long as it took and suddenly it was over.

Then we were lifted higher and placed in a larger circle to cover a bigger area than the city of Bucaramanga. I did not see the entire extent of the circle. Then the three children of Paradise and Jesus came between us to form a multidimensional hexahedron. Our inner Adjuster energies came out of our chakra 6 by itself towards the middle of the circle, as well as the Divine Energies of the children of Paradise and Jesus. It formed like a torus and the rest I could not distinguish.

Then we rose even higher. At one point I saw that Oscar was no longer following us and I asked where he was. I was told that he had to work with the Melchizedeks to form the second floor and that we would form the 3rd floor of this morontia construction at the same time.

So I remained alone with the three children of Paradise to build the 3rd floor because Jesus left.

I still wondered what we were doing here?

The answer finally came from Lanaforge:

"This is the place chosen to create the home or morontia palace of the Melchizedeks who are assigned to Mexico, Central and South America as well as the Antilles with the Caribbean and the Bahamas.(Indicated in red on the map below,.)

This is their headquarters from where they will operate and from where they will later be able to manifest materially. There are now 24 Melchizedeks assigned to the earth to assist the first two children of Paradise who are incarnated.

Another twelve will come to assist the incarnated Mother Spirit who is not assigned to a local universe. Their residences or palaces will be scattered all over the earth.

Pay special attention to your hateful and destructive thoughts, emotions and actions.

There is no chosen country or people on this planet that will bring "The Light" to the rest of the world. This kind of pride is self-destructive and will eventually destroy you from inside if you do not get rid of it, no matter whether it is in an individual, a people, a large religion, a religious minority, a sect, a small or very Large State or a Community of states.

The small ones of yesterday will become the great ones of tomorrow because the wheel turns. No human civilization lasts forever. They all implode sooner or later under the weight of accumulated misdeeds of their leaders and those who support them, who resist the need to transform themselves to be more in line with the Laws of Love, mutual aid and cooperation that govern the Universes.

All the New Energies that have been poured out in small steps for over 20 years, which are becoming more and more pronounced, also have an impact on your climate changes. All those who work with the universe energy, with the energy of Paradise, with the inner energy of their God Fragment know that these energies go hand in hand with heat. They feel it in their bodies, in their hands when they are overloaded because they have given too long. So imagine what happened since we installed all these spiritual energy networks around the earth in the last 10 years?

Global warming does not only come from the increase of CO2 in the air, far from it – it is a set of different astronomical, material and spiritual causes that fit together and influence each other. Your impartial and objective scientists are realizing this and you cannot silence them forever. It will just take a little time.

Don't you think it is the moment to do some introspection, to change your attitude towards all your brothers and sisters, to seek cooperation rather than war, no matter whether it's an economic, psychological or military war. Whether it's a family quarrel that has lasted for generations or a neighborhood conflict? How many young Romeos and Juliets will suffer and commit suicide because their families don't allow them to love each other? How many families don't suffer because they live in neighboring countries whose heads of state one day decided to make war to each other? And because of that were forced to become enemies.

There is no way back. You can only move forward, towards Divine Harmony. This can be done quickly with a smile or harsh and difficult with many tears.

Stop saying: it's not me, it's the other. They are the bad ones, we are the good ones. And because we are the good ones we are allowed to do anything, on the other hand for the other party.....it's different.

These are polarizing ideas that you are taught since you were little: the bad ones on one side and the good ones on the other side.

Only, there is 'The Great Creator of All and Everything' who lives in the heart of each one. He gives alternatives to those who are willing to listen to him and follow his instructions. This is how the souls of children develop and there are already many of these children who have grown up. This is why we can regularly increase, in small quantities, the pressure of the Universe and Divine Energies.

Your choice, Our joy! »
